I have received advice about bats roosting in my house from Terrer C C '(insert the name of NPWS officer)
Having carefully considered this and discussed alternative solutions, I wish to apply for a licence under Section 54 of the European Communities (Birds and Natural Habitats) Regulations 2011.

To whom it may concern,

Plasse note the house is the sde Raidage of a disabled lady with corebral Paloy, Epilepsy and reid iD, who is of anxious disposition, and box caled, who has substilly issues and is a sense atizi. Consequently the artic space woods to be safely ventilated, in the very near future, and accessible not just as a storage space, which it is now, but as a ling space, complete with battersom + bedroom for carer's p.a. It is presetly in a very unhygenic state and the presence of a roost would be voy determental to the hygenic core of above discorded lady, now & in the future. There are nearly e borns & derelict proporties and it is my intention to provide a suitable habitat on a large tree in the goden, away from the house & road & cats whose it is safer for the bats.

Dear Sir/Madam

The above name lady is just home from hospital barely and electrician tells her there is bats in the attic, not there now but may come back? This is damaging her health with the pungent odour and droppings etc. She needs access to attic that is safe for her since she broke hip and her daughter is disabled. She needs this attic space to be accessable to be turned into living space for a carer

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. Nuala Hardiman MCN: 277108
